Retraction

Concerning the above article (J Child Sci 2021; 11(01): e155–e162; doi: 10.1055/s-0041-1731304), the Editors have been made aware of a significant overlap with another article “Symptomatic Effects of Chest Physiotherapy with Increased Exhalation Technique in Outpatient Care for Infant Bronchiolitis: A Multi-centre, Randomised, Controlled Study” by Sebban et al published in Journal of Clinical Research and Medicine [2019;2(04)].

For this reason, the Editorial Board gives the notice that the article is retracted by the Editors in accordance with COPE guidelines.
